BIOGRAPHY OF CORNELIS STEKETEE AND FAMILY HISTORY

Cornelis C. Steketee was born March 23, 1801 at Borssele, Province of Zeeland, Netherlands. His father's name was Cornelis Andries Steketee and his mother's name Pauline Westplate. The family consisted of six children, three sons and three daughters, Cornelis being the fourth child born into the family, two sisters and one brother being older and one brother and one sister being younger than he. His early life was spent in the place of his birth, where later in life he followed the occupation of dyke laborer and barber. At the age of 33 years, on May 8, 1834 he married Dirkje Slaakweg. Nine children were born into the family consisting of seven daughters, namely: Maria, Pieternella, Cornelia, Neeltje, Janna, Paulina and Dirkje, and two sons Jan and Cornelis. At the age of 52 years his ambition turned to the land of freedom and opportunity, and on March 20, 1854, the family sailed from Antwerp on a sailing vessel which required nine weeks to make the voyage to New York, arriving on June 1, 1854. The journey was continued from New York partly by rail, canal boat and wagon.

Mr. Steketee enjoyed the privileges and benefits of the land of his adoption but a short time, for seven weeks after his arrival was taken sick with dysentery which caused his death on July 20, 1854. Dirkje the youngest daughter died at the age of seven years, four years after the family arrived in America. For a time the family resided in a small house located on East 8th St. between Columbia and College Avenues. Three years later, in 1857, Mrs. Steketee married Jan H. Te Sligte. They resided on East 16th St. between Central and College Avenues until the date of her death July 3, 1892. The only living survivor of the family is Mrs. Neeltje Westing, 86 years of age. The total number of decendants is 644, of which 92 have died. The number of families is 155, most of whom reside in or near Holland, Michigan.
